the tactics employed by Communist Party guerrillas in Assam is to approach a village and ask the headman if the villagers will surrender or fight. If the villagers surrender, the village is pillaged and looted. If the villagers show a willingness to fight, the guerrillas sometimes take no action.

2. Most of the leaders of the Communist Party cells in Assam are college educated, and some have had Moscow training.

Hyderabad

3. Mobile radio transmission units are being operated by the Communists in the Hyderabad-Madras border areas. The police have been unable to capture them as virtual anarchy exists in these areas. The broadcasters frequently speak English with Slavic accents (possibly Polish).
4. An expensive chromium-plated medical kit, made in the United States, was seized in an anti-Communist raid in Hyderabad.
5. Interrogation of Communist prisoners in concentration camps in Hyderabad reveals that even the lowliest and most uneducated Communists display an intimate knowledge of Lenin, Stalin and Communist ideology. It is apparent that these detenus have not been led blindly by rabble-rousing Communists.
